Ringer Tournament

November 19, 2011 to April 7, 2012

This year's Ringer Tournament will once again feature five (5) separate handicap flights, so the chance's of your placing high in your flight are greatly increased. The flights are as follows:

- 1st flight – 1 to 6 handicap
- 2nd flight – 7 to 10 handicap
- 3rd flight – 11 to 14 handicap
- 4th flight – 15 to 18 handicap
- 5th flight – 19 and above handicap

The format is simple! The tournament will begin on November 19, 2011 and run thru April 7, 2012. There are at least 14 Saturday tournaments that qualify with postable scores during this period, and they will comprise the tournaments that are used to determine your running tournament scores. Your lowest gross score on each of the 18 holes will be recorded, posted and retained until you make a lower gross score in one of the tournaments played during the following weeks. It's simple, and a lot of fun!

Running status reports will be posted on the locker room bulletin board after each week's play, so you can follow your progress. Following play on April 7, 2012, the lowest 1/3 of the resulting scores in each of the five flights will qualify for the cash prizes. All money collected will be awarded!

$10.00 Entry Fee

Please note "Ringer" and your member number on your check, and drop it in the PVMGA Treasurer's box. Join the Ringer Tournament early to maximize your number of tournament days.

Play your best, and let's see just how low you can go!
